The Institution of the Eucharist

The Gospel during Corpus Christi Year B tells us about Jesus preparing for the Passover. He instructs his disciples to set up a special room. Here, he starts the Eucharist, which is Jesus' way of staying with us always. This moment is not just about remembering Jesus but having Him present with us in every Mass.

Every time we participate in the Eucharist, we renew our commitment to God. Like the covenant in Exodus, our participation is a promise to live by God's ways. The Eucharist is a powerful reminder of Jesus' love and his ultimate sacrifice for us. It's also a call for us to come together as one family in faith.

As we reflect on Corpus Christi Year B, we understand more deeply what it means to be part of God's covenant. Jesus sacrificed for us to be part of this new promise. Now, we are asked to live it out by following Jesus' teachings and sharing His love with others.

Theology of the Body Training (English)

June 7-8

Join youth ministers, catechists, and others for a workshop on the Christian anthropology developed by St. John Paul II in his weekly catechesis known as the Theology of the Body. This two-day workshop is intended for those who want to get a deeper foundation in the vision of John Paul II. Many of our young people and young adults today face very serious questions about marriage, vocation, sexuality, and even gender. In order to adequately respond to those challenges, we need a solid grasp in a theological anthropology, a vision of what the human person really is in the light of revelation. person really is in the light of revelation.

Our presenter, Jennifer Prather, has given workshops to people across the country and even internationally. Her ministry, Image and Gift, trains people in the holistic vision of John Paul II to see the deep truths about our identity as sons and daughters of God.

Schedule: 9 am to 3 pm, Friday June 7 and 8

Location: St. Mary Magdelene, Flint

La institución de la Eucaristía

© J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

El Evangelio durante el Año B del Corpus Christi nos habla de Jesús preparándose para la Pascua. Instruye a sus discípulos a preparar una habitación especial. Aquí comienza la Eucaristía, que es la manera en que Jesús permanece siempre con nosotros. Este momento no se trata sólo de recordar a Jesús sino de tenerlo presente con nosotros en cada Misa.

Cada vez que participamos en la Eucaristía, renovamos nuestro compromiso con Dios. Al igual que el pacto del Éxodo, nuestra participación es una promesa de vivir según los caminos de Dios. La Eucaristía es un poderoso recordatorio del amor de Jesús y de su sacrificio supremo por nosotros. También es un llamado para que nos unamos como una familia en la fe.

Al reflexionar sobre el Año B de Corpus Christi, entendemos más profundamente lo que significa ser parte del pacto de Dios. Jesús se sacrificó por nosotros para ser parte de esta nueva promesa. Ahora, se nos pide que lo vivamos siguiendo las enseñanzas de Jesús y compartiendo su amor con los demás.
